The Wise Housewife Bakes!

—Economy, health, satisfaction—in fact, everything points to the advantage of baking the daily bread in the home oven.

—Good home-made bread is always enjoyable. It is easily digested and its rich nutrient properties contribute largely to one's health and strength.

—When you bake—economy and results both suggest using the best flour—that is "Ceres" Flour.

—It has been demonstrated beyond a doubt that a barrel of "Ceres" Flour invariably yields 320 one-pound loaves of light, snow white, nutritious bread.

—At the present price of flour the bread you bake at home costs only 2 1/2 c. a loaf.

Ask your grocer for "Ceres" Flour and refuse substitutes.
